

WESTERN AUSTRALIAN ROGAINING ASSOCIATION

New Committee Member Induction Process

When a member is elected to the committee for the first time the following process is to be followed. The secretary will supply the new committee member with the following Association documents and policies.

The document that describes the position the member will hold on the committee

The constitution

The current strategic plan

The current operational plan

Drugs free policy

Privacy policy

Harassment free policy

Child protection policy