

WESTERN AUSTRALIAN ROGAINING ASSOCIATION

Privacy Policy

Most, if not all bodies involved in the administration of sport & recreation collect, store and disclose personal information about individuals. Such bodies comprise national and state associations, clubs, societies etc.

Typically, sports & recreation bodies collect, store and share information such as names, addresses, phone numbers, medical status of members and participants in their events and activities.

PRIVACY STATEMENT FOR WARA

The following applies to details collected by the Western Australian Rogaining Association Inc. from any member or participant.

- No information from our membership database will be sold for profit or sponsorship.
- Phone numbers and other member details will not be disclosed, other than in the normal course of organising a Rogaine, or in accordance with applicable laws.
- The organisers shall, if in doubt, check with a member before passing contact details on to another member.
- Credit card details will be destroyed in a safe manner after being kept for the required period by law.